Dear Friends,

The Timothy School is excited to announce our first annual Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony. Honorees are selected for hall of fame induction based on their dedication and support of The Timothy School over the years. This year we will be honoring Judith A. D'Angelo, Ed.D., and The Gomez Family. Please read below to learn more about these special honorees and how you can be a part of this very special event:

Judith A. D'Angelo, Ed.D.

Dr. Judith D'Angelo was the Executive Director of The Timothy School for eighteen years (1998 – 2016) and has thirty-seven years of special education experience. Under her guidance and direction, The Timothy School's reputation, as a superior approved private school option for students with autism, grew exponentially. Additionally, thanks to her tireless efforts, the school began its expansion from one main school building to the sprawling campus it is today.

Judy has won many awards and authored several publications, including the American Educational Research Association (UCEA) National Graduate Students' Award, Council for Exceptional Children Honor Award, and ERIC Document: Gender Differences in the Career Paths of School Administrators. To this day, Judy continues to advocate for students with Autism Spectrum Disorder and their families and supports The Timothy School. The Timothy School would not be what it is today without Dr. Judith D'Angelo, and we are thankful for all she has done for our community.

The Gomez Family

The Gomez Family began their relationship with The Timothy School in 1979 when their son/brother, John Paul, became a student. As a student, John Paul brought energy and a positive vibe that was contagious to anyone who came in contact with him.

After graduating, John Paul became an employee at The Timothy School as a music aide. Sadly, John Paul passed away in 2012, but his memory lives on within The Timothy School community. The Gomez Family has supported The Timothy School from the very beginning of John Paul's time with us, and they continue to do so today. The Timothy School is grateful to The Gomez Family's ongoing dedication.

Please help us celebrate Dr. Judith D'Angelo and The Gomez Family at our Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony.
